

Professional Background Lesli Wood

Having gained years of trial experience as a public defender, Lesli Wood now focuses her practice on defending cases in the areas of personal injury, commercial lines, property damage, and insurance defense.

EDUCATION

University of Washington School of Law – J.D., 2005

2004 Lesani Award Recipient: Award for contribution to civil rights

2004 Public Interest Grant Recipient: Award for contribution to public interest

2004 King Cty. Washington Women Lawyer's Assoc. Award Recipient: Award for contribution to community service

Wayne State University – B.A. in Psychology, summa cum laude, 1997
Dean's List – School of Science (1996-1997)

BAR ADMISSIONS

Washington State Bar Association

Supreme Court of Washington

NOTABLE RESULTS

Lesli has obtained multiple defense arbitration awards, summary judgment dismissals, and numerous positive settlements and results for her clients. While working with the Innocence Project, Lesli argued a three-strikes case before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

PROFESSIONAL AND CIVIC INVOLVEMENT

Washington Defense Trial Lawyers Association

American Bar Association

King County Bar Association

Washington Women Lawyers Association

PERSONAL INTERESTS AND ACTIVITIES

In her (very rare) free time, Lesli is a professional musician who is well-known for her role as a community organizer and advocate for empowering young women through music.